

Celebrate a Golden Era of the Natural Sciences

Witmer Stone Weekend

September 30, October 1 & 2, 2011

Medford Leas & Camp Dark Waters, Medford, NJ

Come celebrate the 100th Anniversary of Witmer Stone's Plants of Southern New Jersey, published by the New Jersey State Museum in 1911.

- ◇ Enjoy the history of Stone's life and of the great Victorian naturalists
- ◇ Hear outstanding speakers compare today's avian, botanical and entomological populations to those Stone recorded
- ◇ Join field trips "in the footsteps of Witmer Stone"

Catoxen Cabin was built in 1899 by Stone's fellow founders of the Delaware Valley Ornithological Club as a base for their natural science research. It is still in use at Camp Dark Waters today.

- ◇ Visit Catoxen Cabin on Saturday afternoon
- ◇ Bird, botanize, hike and canoe the Rancocas Creek
- ◇ Enjoy dinner and music around the campfire on Saturday night
